

PREMISE AND ASSEMBLY INFORMATION

Name of Premise:	_____		Address:	_____
Type of Premise:	_____		Location of Assembly:	_____
Assembly Details:	Manufacturer:	_____	Model:	_____
	Serial No.	_____	Size:	_____
Assembly Type:	RPBA <input type="checkbox"/>	RPDA <input type="checkbox"/>	Orientation:	<input type="checkbox"/> H <input type="checkbox"/> V
	DCVA <input type="checkbox"/>	DCDA <input type="checkbox"/>

Hazard Information: (Include all information known on hazard that the removed backflow preventer isolated)

Hazard Type: _____ (e.g., ice machine, irrigation, etc.)

Hazard Location on Property: _____

Has the hazard (equipment, fixture, etc.) been removed? Yes No

If NO a replacement device must be installed and tested by a BCWWA certified tester.

If yes, has the water connection to the hazard been permanently capped off? Yes No

I certify that the hazard this backflow preventer once controlled is permanently disconnected from the potable water supply and the backflow preventer has been permanently removed from the premises.

Property Agent Signature _____ Date: _____

Print Name _____

All the information on this form must be filled out completely by the person(s) responsible for the property. If this form is submitted incomplete, it shall be returned to the sender for corrections.

Glossary:

Backflow Preventer: a device designed to protect potable water supplies from contamination or pollution due to backflow.

Hazard: Equipment or a process which has potential at introducing contaminants into a potable water supply. (Chemical storage, refrigerators, dishwashers, janitorial sinks, etc....)